WHEREAS it is expedient to make better provision for the sanitary condition of the city:

The Mayor and Aldermen of the City of New Westminster, in Council assembled, enact as follows:—

1. No action or proceedings taken or had under this by-law shall be affected by the provisions of the "New Westminster Health By-Law, 1869," but nothing herein shall be held to affect or prejudice the validity of the said by-law, or to act as a bar to any action or proceedings which may be taken or had thereunder.

2. It shall be lawful for the Council to appoint any duly qualified physician practising in the city to be Medical Health Officer in and for the said city, and to pay to the said Medical Health Officer so appointed a salary or retaining fee not exceeding $200 per annum.

3. It shall be the duty of the Medical Health Officer—

(a.) To report immediately to the Chairman of the Board of Health, the Sanitary Inspector, or the Mayor of the city, the existence within the city of any case of infectious or contagious disease, or of any other matter or thing dangerous to the public health, and to advise with the said officers, or any of them, as to the steps necessary to be taken in the premises;

(b.) To visit, at the request of any of the officers named in the last preceding sub-section, any alleged case of infectious or contagious disease, or any place or places within the city where any nuisance or any matter or thing dangerous to the public health is said

(c.) To make the inspections provided for in section 6 of this by-law, and send written reports thereof to the City Clerk.

4. In case it shall be necessary to establish a quarantine in or for the city, or if, for any cause, the Medical Health Officer shall be called upon to render special services not provided for in the preceding subsections or in section 6 of this by-law, the said Medical Health Officer shall be entitled to receive further remuneration for such special services at the usual professional rates, not to exceed, however, in the whole, the sum of $5 per day for every day upon which such special services shall be rendered.

5. It is hereby made the duty of every physician practising within the city to report to the Medical Health Officer, or to one of the officers named in sub-section (a) of section 3 of this by-law, any case of infectious or contagious disease which he shall be called upon to attend or prescribe for, and such report shall set forth all particulars necessary to enable the sanitary authorities of the city to take proper action in the matter, and such report must be handed to one of the above-mentioned officers, or posted (prepaid) under cover, to the City Clerk, within six hours after such physician has first been called to attend or prescribe for such case.

6. Every slaughter-house, distillery, tannery, brewery, soap or candle factory, paper mill, cannery, butcher shop, fish stall, and every building or premises where the business of rendering any animal or vegetable matter, or changing the form thereof in any manner by the use of heat, steam, fire, or chemicals, is carried on, shall be inspected by the Medical Health Officer at least three times in every year, and two such inspections shall be made between the 1st day of April and the 1st day of October in each year; and one such inspection shall be made between the 1st day of October and the 1st day of the following April; and the Medical Health Officer shall send a report of every such inspection to the City Clerk.

7. It shall be the duty of the City Clerk to lay before one of the officers named in sub-section (a) of section 3 of this by-law, with such speed as the nature of the case may require, any report which may reach him under the provisions of the two preceding sections.

8. The Council shall appoint (in addition to the Medical Health Officer) a Sanitary Inspector for the city: Provided that, until otherwise ordered by the Council, the Chief of Police for the time being shall be the Sanitary Inspector under this by-law: Provided also that it shall be lawful for the Council to appoint at any time one or more Assistant Sanitary Inspectors for the outlying wards of the city, who shall, in the ward or wards for which they are appointed, have the powers and privileges conferred upon, and discharge the duties imposed upon, the Sanitary Inspector under this by-law.

9. It shall be the duty of the Sanitary Inspector to see that the provisions of this by-law are strictly observed by all residents of the city, and he shall be especially required to impartially carry out and enforce the provisions of sections 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 17, 18, and 19 of this by-law; and it is hereby made the duty of all police constables in the service of the city to assist the Sanitary Inspector by promptly reporting to him any infraction or neglect of the provisions of this by-law which may come to their knowledge.

10. No person shall erect, open or use any slaughter-house within the limits of the city: Provided, however, that slaughter-houses actually in use at the date of the coming into force of the New Westminster Act, 1888, and still in use, may continue to be used as such, but the house, yard, pen, or place in or connected with such slaughter-house, in or upon which animals are killed, shall be paved with plank, stone, flag or tile, laid in cement, or otherwise made impervious to water, and so constructed that any blood or offal thereon shall naturally drain into a tub or reservoir which shall be provided to receive the same, and every such place shall also be provided with a tank, well, or other means whereby a supply of water can be obtained sufficient to keep the same clean and free from offensive odor; and every such slaughter-house or building used for the purpose of killing within the city shall be lime whitewashed at least once in every month, between the 1st day of April and the 1st day of November in each year, and lime shall be freely used for the purpose of disinfection, and the tub or reservoir named in the foregoing section shall be emptied at the end of each day when killing has been done on the premises, at such place that no offensive effluvia may arise therefrom; and the whole of such premises shall be kept perfectly clean and free from any offensive smell or nuisance of any kind whatever; and every slaughter-house or building so used shall have at all times a printed copy of these regulations relating to slaughter-houses hung up or exposed in some conspicuous part of such building or premises.

11. No owner, tenant, or occupier of land within the city shall allow the accumulation upon his premises, or deposit, or permit to be deposited, upon any lot belonging to or occupied by him, any garbage or offal, or anything which would create a nuisance or endanger the public health; or deposit in or upon any street, avenue, square, lane, highway, wharf, dock, slip, pond, stream or water course, or on the banks thereof, any dead animal, fish, rubbish, excrement, manure, offal, or other refuse.

12. Any of the officers named in sub-section (a) of section 3 of this by-law may notify, in the form provided in Schedule C of this by-law, any one who, personally or through an employe, has been guilty of any infraction of the last preceding section, to remove the nuisance and put any place or premises fouled by the same in proper sanitary condition, and any person refusing or neglecting to obey such notice for a period of twenty-four hours shall be subject to the penalties imposed under this by-law, and in addition thereto shall pay the expense of removing such nuisance and cleansing such place or premises; and the Sanitary Inspector is hereby empowered to order all work necessary in connection with such removing and cleansing to be done at the expense of the person so notified as above, and in default of the payment of such expenses by the person hereby made liable for the payment thereof, the Sanitary Inspector may proceed to recover the same in a summary way, and such expenses, with costs, may be recovered by action or distress, and in case of non-payment thereof the same shall be recovered in like manner as municipal taxes are recovered under the "New Westminster Act, 1888."

13. Whenever it shall appear to the Board of Health or the Medical Health Officer that it is necessary to the preservation of the public health, or whenever said board or officer shall receive a notice, signed by one or more inhabitant householder in the city, stating that the condition of any building or premises in the city is so filthy as to be dangerous to the public health, or that on any premises in the city there is any foul or offensive ditch, gutter, drain, privy, cesspool, ashpit, or cellar, kept or constructed so as to be dangerous to the public health, or that upon any such premises any accumulation of dung, manure, offal, filth, refuse, stagnant water, or other matter or thing is kept or allowed so as to be dangerous or injurious as aforesaid, it shall be the duty of the Sanitary Inspector to enter such building or premises for the purpose of examining the same, and he may order the removal of such matter or thing as aforesaid, and compel the owner or occupier or his legal agent to put such premises in proper sanitary condition forthwith. And any person legally responsible for the condition of such premises who shall refuse or neglect to obey such order for twenty-four hours shall be liable to the penalties imposed by this by-law, and in addition thereto shall pay the cost of removing such nuisance.

14. When any dumb animal shall die within the limits of the city, the owner or person in possession of it shall, within twelve hours thereafter, cause the carcass to be buried and covered with at least two feet of earth, or cremated.

15. If the Board of Health is satisfied that any cellar, room, tenement, or building within the city, occupied as a dwelling-house, or any part thereof, has become, by reason of the number of occupants, want of cleanliness, the existence therein of a contagious or infectious disease, or from any other cause, unfit to be used as a dwelling, or dangerous to the health of the occupants, or that it has become a nuisance, they may issue a notice to such occupants, or any of them, requiring the said premises to be put in proper sanitary condition, or if they see fit, requiring the occupants to quit the said premises within such time as the board may deem reasonable.

16. Every privy-vault, box, or other receptacle, and every cesspool, drain, ditch, or gutter within the city which is so constructed that the contents thereof or the matter deposited or received therein may be absorbed by the surrounding soil, and every privy not provided with a proper cover and ventilating box or shaft, is hereby declared to be a nuisance within the meaning of this by-law.

17. The manager for the time being, whether lessee, owner, occupier, or tenant, of every hotel, saloon, restaurant, lodging or boarding-house within the city shall provide a proper box, vessel or place in which the occupant or occupants shall deposit or cause to be deposited all the offal, garbage, and kitchen refuse of the premises, and every such box, vessel or place shall be emptied and cleaned with sufficient frequency to prevent it from becoming a nuisance.

18. No person shall fraudulently adulterate with any substance injurious to health any bread, milk, or other substance intended to be sold as food, and the existence of any such adulteration in any article or substance kept, exposed, or offered for sale, shall be prima facie evidence of intention to defraud, and any such article so adulterated shall be forfeited and destroyed under the direction of the Mayor or Police Magistrate or of any Justice of the Peace having jurisdiction in the city.

19. No butcher, fishmonger, grocer, trader, or other person shall sell or keep, offer, or expose for sale, at any place within the city, as food, any tainted, diseased, damaged, or unwholesome meat, poultry, fish, vegetables, milk, fruit, or other articles of food or provisions, or the flesh of any animal which may have died otherwise than by slaughter, and the Sanitary Inspector may seize and destroy any such tainted, diseased, damaged, or unwholesome meat, poultry, fish, vegetables, milk, fruit or other articles of food or provisions.

20. Every butcher, fishmonger, grocer, dairy keeper, milk dealer, or other person engaged in the business of selling any substance or article intended to be used as food shall at all reasonable times allow the Sanitary Inspector or Medical Health Officer, or either or both of them, to freely and fully inspect their premises, cattle, milk, meats, fish, fruit, vegetables, or other articles kept, exposed, offered, or intended for sale, and shall answer all reasonable and proper questions asked by such officers, and shall afford to such officers all facilities necessary to the full discharge of their duties as inspectors under this by-law.

21. In all cases where no provision is herein made defining what are nuisances, and how the same may be removed, abated, or prevented, those offences, matters, or things which are known to the Common Law of the land and the Statutes of British Columbia as nuisances, if the same exist within the city, may, in addition to the offences, matters, and things named herein, be treated as nuisances and proceeded against as in this by-law provided, or in accordance with any other law which shall give the magistrate trying the same jurisdiction,
